I once told my aunt, Sarah Peabody Perley, that if I ever wrote a book, I would dedicate it to her; so, in fulfilment of that early promise, and in recognition of the fact that she gave me my first genealogical instruction, I dedicate this little book to her memory.

To all those who have in any way assisted me in the preparation of this work I hereby extend my hearty thanks. It has been an arduous, and sometimes a discouraging, task; but, notwithstanding its difficulties, it has always been a labor of love. Hoping it will be a source of pleasure to the members of the family, I send it on its way.
